

TOOK 7 POUCHES REGISTERED MAIL

"This is All We Can Get Into Our Automobile," Remarked the Leader

U. P. PASSENGER TRAIN HELD UP

Three Miles West of Omaha—Robbers Forced Engineer to Stop Train—Eight Clerks in Mail Car Covered with Revolvers—Continuous Firing During Robbery to Intimidate Passengers—Road Officials Offer Reward of $5,000—No Clue to Robbers.

Omaha, Neb., May 23.—Although the police and the sheriff have had large forces of men searching the country around the scene of last night's holocaust of a Healey building, no one has been up to a Union Pacific passenger train three miles west of Omaha, little progress has been made toward tracing the escaped robbers. The empty mail pouches taken in the train were found today some distance from the place where the robbery occurred.

They had been cut open and their and asked to point out the registered mail. This he did, and the robbers gathered up seven pouches, and the leader then remarked:

"This is all we can get into our automobile."

They left the place quickly, walking down the track three hundred feet and

Robbers Stood Guard Over Locomotive.
The robbery took place within a mile of the city limits. Two of the robbers climbed on to the engine with drawn revolvers, and forced the engineer to

SAN DOMINGO REVOLUTIONARY      SECRETARY DICKINSON

| MOVEMENT SPREADING.   | RETURNS TO WASHINGTON.  |
|---|---|
| Guayubin and Dajabon Captured—Communications Interrupted.   | Compelled by Illness to Cut Short HisTrip to Canal Zone.  |
| Cape Haytien, Hayti, May 23 (byCourier from Monte Christi, SantoDomingo).—The revolutionary move- | Washington, May 23.—Weak fromthe effects of his illness, which com-pelled him to cut short his late Span- |

ment is spreading. General Camacho, the former governor of Monte Cristi, who is working in unison with General Quilizo Felice for the overthrow of the government, has attacked and seized Guavabin and Dajabon, which are situated on the Haytian frontier, the Dajabon river being the northwest boundary between Haiti and the Dominican republic. There has been fighting between the revolutionists and the loyal forces at Monte Christi. The fate of Jose Bordas, governor of Puerto Rico, is not known, but it is reported that he is either dead or a prisoner.

Communications are interrupted and when his condition began to cause concern.

The secretary and Mrs. Dickinson were driven at once to Fort Meyer, where they will be the guests of General Bell.

The trip to Panama which Mr. Dickinson just completed was made in an all-day trip. The President is in the city.

government troops are expected to reach the disaffected districts by sea.

WARNINGS OF APPROACHING STORMS BY WIRELESS

To Be Flashed Around the World—The Latest International Project.

Washington, May 22.—Flashing around the world by wireless telegraphy warnings of approaching storms and other disturbances of the elements is one of the latest international projects. Still another of perhaps lit-

These are the leading problems to be discussed out at a conference of distinguished representatives of all nations to be held in London June 1921. The proposed conference is the growth of a feeling of the leading meteorologists of the world held in Europe several years ago. The United States will be represented by Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau.

SHOCKED BY 11,000 VOLTS.

including the neighboring islands.

The Seculo reports that the British government, at the request of China, has intervened in China's favor.

DEDICATION OF A WINDOW IN HONOR OF ROOSEVELT

Stafford Springs Electric Light Station Engineer Badly Burned.

Stafford Springs, Conn., May 22.—Andrew Newcombe, an engineer at the Stafford Springs electric light station, was taken to the Hartford hospital today, after having been shocked by 11-

At the Metropolitan Temple in New York City.

New York, May 22.—Oscar S. Strauss, former secretary of commerce and labor and recently appointed ambassador to Turkey, was the principal speaker tonight at the dedication of a window

600 volts of electricity. Newcombe was repairing a steam pipe which had come into contact with a high voltage wire carrying 11,000 volts. He received the full voltage through his right hand and arm, which was burned to the bone. On arrival at the hospital it was found that outside of the burns

OLDEST POSTMASTER DEAD.
Had Served Continuously for the Past Fifty-nine Years.

F. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 23.—Milo F. Winchester, the oldest postmaster of the United States, having served continuously at Amenia, Dutchess county, for the past fifty-nine years, died at his home today of pneumonia. He was 86 years old. Mr. Winchester was appointed postmaster of Amenia in 1854. He is survived by a son, F. Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Walter E. Clark's Appointment as Governor of Alaska.

of Walter E. Clark as governor of Alaska, to succeed Wilford Hoggalt, the following statement was issued at the White house today:

"Governor Hoggalt of Alaska stated to the president a number of times his desire to be relieved of the office of governor and the appointment of Mr. [illegible] as governor. The president has been unable to find a suitable person to replace him. The president has been unable to find a suitable person to replace him. The president has been unable to find a suitable person to replace him."

Drowned Her Baby in Lake Community.

Wallingford, Conn., May 22.—Charged with taking the life of her child by drowning it in Lake Community, Agnes Gonsaba, 25 years old, was placed in the Wallingford jail today.

Clark was not made out a telegram had been sent by Governor Hoggatt, fixing a time when he asked to be relieved."

Unitarian Anniversary Week in Boston
Boston, May 23.—Anniversary week, which yearly brings to Boston many hundreds of prominent Unitarians from all parts of the country—and Canada, opened today with exercises afternoon and evening in the Arlington street church. Through the week, beginning tomorrow, the Friday night, the American Unitarian association, which has its headquarters in Boston, and its affairs conducted on a still bold, un-meetings and discussions in which the leading clergymen and church workers of the faith will participate.

Seventy-fifth Anniversary of Hartford Theological Seminary.
Hartford, Conn., May 23.—Preliminhopes of salvage. The schooner was valued at $75,000 and was partly insured.

Committed Suicide in Haylett.
Middletown, Conn., May 23.—Richard Atkins, 25 years old, committed suicide at his home in Long Hill today.

ary to the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Hartford Theological Seminary, the coming week, the pulpits of the Protestant churches in this city were filled by alumni of the seminary. The exercises will continue through the first three days of the week.

